

Ricardo BARETZKY- C| GTS IRM COTIPSO

Ricardo Baretzky is a Global Intelligence Architect, Certified Global Terrorism - Specialist (C|GTS), current President of CYBERPOL, The International Cyber Policing Organization and serve as the President of The European Centre for Information Policy and Security (ECIPS) established by Decree. Ricardo is a long standing member of the global CI-Community whom previously advised state officials on Negotiation and Conflict Cyber-Security capacity building in complex international multi disciplinary structures and political cultural work settings in Africa and Asia, the Commonwealth of Independent States, particularly (multi disciplinary) institutional, organizational and operational development of Cyber Intelligence, Policy and Rule of Policy Services. FEMA Certification in Information Risk Management IRM and Co-Founder and official elected President of the European Centre for Information Policy and Security ECIPS, Ricardo is a well-known and sought after public speaker on the international risk management industry events circuit and has a passion for all things related to Cyber Counter Intelligence and Technology. He is currently an advisor on the subject of Insider Threats and Cyber Incident Analysis and Response and compliance policies to a number of global companies and international governments. Baretzky appeared as Expert Speaker before members of The United States Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on Western Hemisphere Crime, Civilian Security and participated on the International Expert Panel and was an Expert Speaker for Members of Congress Legislative Forum on Capitol Hill, Washington, DC on 22nd June 2017.

(230 Words)

“Baretzky is an expert commentator on International Terrorism and Cyber Threat Speaker Circuit and has been the Chairman for the African Counter Terrorism Summit London 2014. He is also regularly quoted in this leading News, Media and TV publications as a leading authoritative source in Counter Terrorism and Insider threats”. — France 24

